2nd Annual Symposium on Digital Ethics

Tentative Schedule

Monday, October 29, 2012

8 – 8:30 registration and breakfast KASBEER

8:45 Welcome KASBEER

9:00 – 10:15 Research concerns and digital ethics; featured panel discussion. KASBEER

Moderator: Annette Markham, Guest Professor, Umeå University, Sweden, Affiliate Professor, School of Communication, Loyola University, Chicago.

Contextual Integrity Confronts New Models of Education and Healthcare - Helen Nissenbaum, Professor of Media, Culture and Communication, and Computer Science, at New York University

Big Real Problems: Emerging Ethics Issues in Human Experimentation in Virtual Worlds - Joshua Fairfield, Associate Professor of Law, Washington and Lee University

Identity, Authority and Unease: Examining the articulation of ethical positions in accounts of new media use/research - Natasha Whiteman, Lecturer, Department of Media and Communications, University of Leicester

The Ethics of Twitter Research: A Topology of Disciplines, Methods and Ethics Review Boards - Michael Zimmer & Nicholas Proferes, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

10: 30 – 11:45

Panel: Trust, ethics and moral agency. KASBEER

Moderator: Bastiaan Vanacker, Loyola Chicago

Degrees of Trust and Levels of Moral Agency in the Context of Autonomous Machines, Herman Tavani, Professor Emeritus of Philosophy, Rivier University

Virtue Ethics and Digital 'Flourishing': An Application of Philippa Foot to Life Online - Patrick Lee Plaisance, Colorado State University

Online security and individuals rights, an ethical balance - Mariaroarosaria Taddeo, University of Hertfordshire

The Junk File Case: Identity collisions and the ethics of connectivity - Guillaume Latzko-Toth, Université Laval

Panel: Social media, law & ethics. 1102

Moderator: Don Heider

Control, Communication, and Conflict on Facebook Memorial Pages - Nicole B. Ellison, Associate Professor in the Telecommunication, Information Studies, and Media department at Michigan State University and Alice Marwick, Microsoft Research

Click here to comment: Combining ethical and legal perspectives on Section 230 - Susan Keith, Rutgers University

Should virtual cybercrime be brought under the scope of the criminal law? - Litska Strikwerda, , University of Twente

Journalists and Social Media: Professional Restrictions and Their Ethical Implications - Erica Bailey, Virginia Tech

11:45 Lunch

12:15 Keynote – Sherry Turkle, Abby Rockefeller Mauzé Professor of the Social Studies of Science and Technology in the Program in Science, Technology, and Society at MIT and the founder and current director of the MIT Initiative on Technology and Self

KASBEER

1:30 – 2:45

Panel: Digital ethics and the fourth estate. KASBEER

Moderator: Don Wycliff, Loyola Chicago

Re-Inventing Media Ethics Amid a Digital Revolution - Stephen J. A. Ward, Burgess Professor of Journalism Ethics, University of Wisconsin

The Emerging Uses of Ethical Principles in Journalist's Privilege Law – Jason M. Shepard, California State University, Fullerton

The Ethics of Unpublication - Jasmine McNealy, Syracuse University & Laurence Alexander, University of Florida.

The Ethical Implications of an Elite Press - Jane B. Singer, University of Iowa

Panel: Global perspectives in digital ethics. COURTROOM 1040

Moderator: Lauren Labrecque, Loyola Chicago

The Internet and Authoritarian States: Ethical Issues in Transnational Digital Activism - Cameran Ashraf, University of California, Los Angeles

"Yes, Vinton, there is a Human Right to the Internet" - Kay Mathiesen, University of Arizona

A Case Study of Censor Circumvention in Chinese Micro-blogging Site - Yiran Wang, University of California, Irvine

Secrets and Lies: Digital Media Ethics and Integrity in Global Perspective - Twyla Gibson, Harvard University

3:00 – 4:15

Panel: Surveillance and privacy KASBEER

Moderator: Steven Jones, Loyola Chicago

YouTube Shakespeares: Ethical Issues in Humanities and Literary Research Contexts - Valerie Fazel, Arizona State University

Digital ethics and the Pascua Yaqui Tribe: When moral rights about culture trump legal rights about digital image gathering –Kevin R. Kemper, University of Arizona

From Battlefield to Newsroom: Ethical and Legal Implications of Drone Technology in Journalism - Kathleen Bartzen Culver, University of Wisconsin-Madison

In Context: Ethical Implications of Digital Surveillance – Jan Fernback, Temple University

Panel: Balancing interests in digital technology. COURTROOM

Moderator: Meghan Dougherty, Loyola Chicago

The Curator's Code: Toward an Ethics of Curation? - Shawn McIntosh, Columbia University

The Ethics of Online Coursework: Instructor Responsibilities, Student Participation, and Managing Public-Private Learning- Vanessa P. Dennen, Florida State University

Reading Privacy: The Role Interface Aesthetics Play in eReader Privacy Disclosure Decisions - J. Richard Stevens, University of Colorado at Boulder

Plug away: disclosure of material connections in social media channels - David Kamerer, Loyola University Chicago

4:15 – 5:30

The ethics of games and virtual worlds; featured panel discussion.
KASBEER

Moderator: J. Talmadge Wright ,Loyola Chicago

Playing with ethics: Digital games and moral dilemmas
Mia Consalvo, Canada Research Chair in Game Studies & Design, Concordia University

The Virtual Other: Thinking about virtuality and the future of ethics - Lucas D. Introna, Professor & Associate Dean for Research, Centre for the Study of Technology & Organisation, Lancaster University

Beyond good and evil? Analyzing moral decision-making in mainstream video games - Thorsten Busch, University of St. Gallen

Biases on Truthfulness: Using a Game to Prompt Self-Reflection - Ralph Vacca, New York University

5:30 – 6:30 Cocktails KASBEER