

Dear Colleagues,

Hello and welcome to the Lake Shore Campus of Loyola University Chicago! On behalf of the Loyola History Graduate Student Association (HGSA), I'm delighted to welcome you to our 15th Annual History Graduate Student Conference, organized around the theme of Building Bridges. Our diverse lineup of panels and posters consider how the study of the past can increase understanding and prompt critical conversation about today's world.

Our lunch panel this year, "Career Diversity for Historians: What it Means and Why it Matters," is sponsored by the American Historical Association's Career Diversity for Historians Initiative. Hope Shannon and Tim Hebert will lead our panelists in a discussion about the growing movement to prepare history graduate students for a wide range of careers. What does this mean for current graduate students and for the profession's future? How can historians build bridges outside of the traditional historical discipline? We hope you will join us to participate in these complex discussions.

The HGSA is a student-run organization established to meet students' educational and professional needs. We represent the interests and achievements of history graduate students to Loyola faculty, staff, and administration, and to the public. HGSA members organize this conference to develop skills in planning and presenting at academic conferences and to foster graduate student scholarship. We are proud to build bridges with students from across the country.

Thank you to our graduate and undergraduate presenters and to our faculty and community commentators and panelists for joining us today and sharing their insights. In particular, Alexandra Gradwohl and Sean Jacobson deserve recognition for their role as conference co-chairs this year. Today's events are only possible after months of their dedicated work. Matt Labbe also provided invaluable assistance as the volunteer coordinator this year. Finally, thank you to each person who volunteered time to make the conference happen.

Enjoy the views of Lake Michigan today as you explore the variety of panels!

Sincerely,

Emily Davis President Loyola University Chicago History Graduate Student Association

15th Annual Loyola University Chicago History Graduate Student Conference "Building Bridges" November 3, 2018

Lake Shore Campus Map

Acknowledgments

Loyola University Chicago History Graduate Student Association Officers

Emily Davis, President Cate LiaBraaten, Vice President Sean Jacobson, Treasurer Emily Muszynski, Secretary Anna Claspy, Media Coordinator

HGSA Faculty Advisor

Dr. Patricia Mooney-Melvin

HGSA Conference Committee

Sean Jacobson and Alexandra Gradwohl, Co-Chairs Kelly Schmidt, Public History Roundtable Coordinator Matthew Labbe, Volunteer Coordinator Hope Shannon and Tim Herbert, AHA CDIG Fellows

Volunteers

Matthew Amyx, Bianca Barcenas, Sophia Dunn Croll, June Coyne, Kristin Jacobsen, Molly Kettler, Ariel Medoff, Bryan Morey, Hannah Overstreet, Angela Rothman, Molly Sampson, Anthony Stamilio, Davis Stubblefield, Austin Sundstrom, Clark Terrill, Jill Walker, Alicia Zeimet

Program Design

Katherine Macica Cover image © Michael Muraz

The HGSA Conference Committee would like to thank all of the History Department staff, faculty, and student volunteers for their participation in and assistance with this event. This conference would not be possible without you.

We especially want to thank all of the students from outside of Loyola and the Chicago area who have traveled great distances to be here today and whose participation has made this event a success. Thank you!

A special thank you to the American Historical Association for its partial sponsorship of the lunch panel

Conference Information

Location and Parking

The conference takes place on Loyola's Lake Shore campus at the Mundelein Center for the Fine and Performing Arts and Coffey Hall. The campus is accessible by the CTA red line Loyola stop. Parking is available at Loyola's main parking garage for $7.

Registration

On-site registration is available in McCormick Lounge on the 1st floor of Coffey Hall. Participants who pre-registered can pick up their name tag at the registration desk. The registration desk will be staffed all day and volunteers will be available to help should you have any questions. All conference panels take place in Mundelein Center.

Meals and Refreshments

Coffee, tea, and water will be available in McCormick Lounge throughout the day. Breakfast and lunch are provided for conference participants and volunteers. The reception includes light refreshments. We encourage all conference attendees to join us at the reception.

Public History Roundtable

The Public History Roundtable will take place during the third session, from 3:15 to 4:45. In this roundtable, four Loyola alumnae will draw on their experiences working in museum and postsecondary settings to explore the challenges and successes of creating connections. From helping audiences build empathy for historic and contemporary voices to supporting students in achieving their educational goals, we will unpack the big-picture and practical realities of dismantling barriers and bridging gaps.

Networking Reception

Please join us after the conference for a networking reception. Talk with fellow graduate students, faculty, and an assortment of humanities professionals working in a wide variety of careers both within and outside of academia and learn about some of the many ways historians have applied their degrees after graduation.

Blog

Want to share your thoughts and experiences about the conference after it's over? Consider writing a post for the conference blog. If you're interested, please contact us at hgsa@luc.edu. We welcome posts from all participants, including those not affiliated with Loyola.

Wi-Fi and Social Media

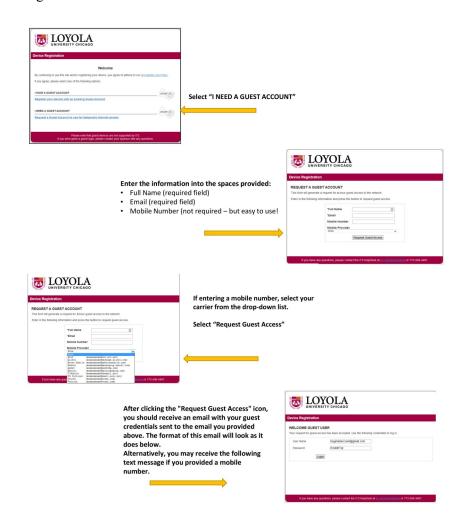

Conference Hashtag

Tweet the conference! We encourage conference attendees to tweet their thoughts and engage in dialog via Twitter. Please use #LoyolaHGSA2018 and be sure to follow @LUC HGSA for updates.

Guest Wi-Fi

Free Wi-Fi is available for conference attendees. Please connect to the "LUC-Guest" wireless network and follow the instructions below. If you need assistance, please see one of the conference volunteers at the registration desk on the 4th floor.

Conference Schedule

All conference panels take place on the 4th floor of Mundelein Center. Registration, poster session, lunch, and the reception take place in McCormick Lounge in Coffey Hall.

Time	Presentation	Location
8:00-9:30	Registration and breakfast	McCormick
8:30-9:15	Poster Session	McCormick
9:15-9:30	Welcome Remarks	McCormick
Session 1
9:45-11:15	Building Bridges in Public History	Palm Court
	Change and Continuity: The Experience of War over Time	403
	Evolving Tensions of Race and Class in US Policy	404
	Examining Education through Material Culture	414
	Youth and Soviet Ideology after World War II	415
Session 2
11:30-1:00	Rules and Rebellions: Pushing the Boundaries of Female Behavior	Palm Court
	The European Immigration Experience in America	403
	Who Decides? The Enforcement of Morality and Respectability	404
	Negotiating Identity and Value: The Many Faces of the Pre-Modern Mediterranean World	414
	Urban Community Activism in America, 1950s to the Present	415

Conference Schedule

Time	Presentation	Location
Lunch
1:00-3:00	Lunch and AHA Career Diversity Panel	McCormick
Session 3
3:15-4:45	Public History Roundtable	Palm Court
	Female Reformers of the Progressive Era	403
	Regulating Sex and Gender, Eighteenth Century to the Present	414
	Political Expression in the 18th and 19th Century Atlantic World	415
Reception
4:45-6:00	Networking Reception	McCormick
6:00	After Party at Bulldog Ale House	6606 N. Sheridan Rd

Registration and Poster Session

8:00-9:30

Registration and breakfast

Coffey Hall, McCormick Lounge

8:30-9:15 Poster Session

Coffey Hall, McCormick Lounge

Posters:

"We The People"

Thilini Fernando, Loyola University Chicago

Environmental History Now: A Project on Representation, Engagement, and Community
Elizabeth Hameeteman, Boston University

Elizabeth Hameeteman, Boston University

The Secret Language of Medieval Objects, 700-1600 Ariel Medoff, Loyola University Chicago Jill Walker, Loyola University Chicago

SOTU-db: State of the Union Database
Tyler Monaghan, Loyola University Chicago

Becoming History: Life in Ancient Civilizations Hannah Overstreet, Loyola University Chicago

Settlers, Savages, and Lesage: Relations of Reciprocity in New France Wen Li Teng, University of Chicago

9:15-9:30

Welcome Remarks

Coffey Hall, McCormick Lounge

Welcome: Dr. Patricia Mooney-Melvin, Loyola University Chicago

History Graduate Program Director

Session 1 | 9:45-11:15

Building Bridges in Public History

Mundelein, Palm Court

Papers: Memorializing the Nation: Monumental Sites and

Pakistani Public History

Hashim Ali, University of Illinois at Chicago

In Her Letters: Building an Archive of Ordinary Writing

Dana LeTriece Calhoun, University of Pittsburgh

Education Kits for the Classroom: A New Approach to Teaching Japanese Canadian Internment Nathalie Picard, Carleton University

From Oregon Onward, Using 3D Modeling to Recreate

Lost Historic Houses

Emily-Paige Taylor, Loyola University Chicago

Comment: Dr. Patricia Mooney-Melvin, Loyola University Chicago

Moderator: Sophia Dunn Croll, Loyola University Chicago

Change and Continuity: The Experience of War over Time Mundelein 403

Papers: "So This is Freedom?" Exploitation of Contraband

Laborers in Civil War Mississippi, 1862-1865 Kristin Bouldin, University of Mississippi

Band of Brothers and Sisters: A Challenge of the Myth of the War Experience

Myrtle Castro, Eastern Illinois University

The Looking Glass Self: Emotional Experiences and Self-Perceptions of American Civil War Surgeons Austin Sundstrom, Loyola University Chicago

Comment: Dr. Theodore Karamanski, Loyola University Chicago

Moderator: Emily Davis, Loyola University Chicago

Session 1 | 9:45-11:15

Evolving Tensions of Race and Class in US Policy Mundelein 404

Papers: Embattled Conservatism: Hamilton Gamble and

Conservatism in Civil War Missouri

Patrick Ayres, Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville

Trickle Down: The American Discourse on the Right to Water

Elizabeth Hameeteman, Boston University

Organized Labor's Alliance for Progress: The AFL-

CIO and Foreign Aid in the 1960s

Jeff Schuhrke, University of Illinois at Chicago

Birth of a Nation v. The Stroll: How One Court Supported White Supremacist Propaganda and Sided with a Revisionist History of Black America Anthony Stamilio, Loyola University Chicago

Comment: Dr. Benjamin Johnson, Loyola University Chicago

Moderator: Angela Rothman, Loyola University Chicago

Examining Education through Material Culture Mundelein 414

Papers: The Westphal Balance: Women Doing Science at

Mundelein College

Anna Claspy, Loyola University Chicago

Mainframes and Microcomputers: Early Computing

Technology in American Education
June Coyne, Loyola University Chicago

The Triumph of Hope School's Desks

Cate LiaBraaten, Loyola University Chicago

Toys Were Us: Examining How Gender, Race, and Technology Were Transmitted Through Toys in the Late

19th and Early 20th Centuries

Katherine Shea, Northeastern Illinois University

Comment: Dr. Ann Marie Ryan, Loyola University Chicago

Moderator: Emily Muszynski, Loyola University Chicago

Session 1 | 9:45-11:15

Youth and Soviet Ideology after World War II Mundelein 415

Papers: International Student Construction Brigades: Building

the International Soviet Man in the 1960s USSR

Liana Kirillova, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale

Jewish Youth and Destalinization at the Fifth World Festival of Youth and Students, Warsaw 1955 Frankee Lyons, University of Illinois at Chicago

Comment: Dr. Anthony Cardoza, Loyola University Chicago

Moderator: Molly Kettler, Loyola University Chicago

Session 2 | 11:30-1:00

Rules and Rebellions: Pushing the Boundaries of Female Behavior Mundelein, Palm Court

Papers: Sentenced to Serve: Charges and Convictions of

Domestic Working Women in 18th Century London

Sara English, Eastern Illinois University

Analyzing the Impact of Nasredin Shah's Journeys to Europe on Muslim Women's Hijab and Clothing in Iran

during His Kingdom (1848-1896)

Zeinab Eskandari, University of Cincinnati

The Lady Vampire of the Carpathians: A Look at the Life, Crimes, and Mind of Erzsébet Bàthory

Sonya Herbach, University at Albany, SUNY

Rebelling Against Patriarchy: Everyday Rebellions of

Textile Mill Women in Lowell, 1830-1850 Timothy Lane, Northeastern Illinois University

"Tattooing the Arms of Pretty Girls": Race, Gender, and the Crisis of the Marked Body in an Imperial United States, 1870-1930

Emily Lyon, Northwestern University

Comment: Dr. Elizabeth Fraterrigo, Loyola University Chicago

Moderator: Cate LiaBraaten, Loyola University Chicago

Session 2 | 11:30-1:00

The European Immigration Experience in America Mundelein 403

Papers: The Memory of Being Irish

Danielle Bennett, Tufts University

An Isle of Exiles in a Land of Immigrants: Discovering Irish-American Identity in the Early American Republic

Through the Study of Print

Brendon Floyd, Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville

What's in a Plan? Aebleskiver and the Evolution of

Danish-American Identity

Kristin Jacobson, Loyola University Chicago

Comment: Dr. Kyle Roberts, Loyola University Chicago

Moderator: Davis Stubblefield, Loyola University Chicago

Who Decides? The Enforcement of Morality and Respectability Mundelein 404

Papers: "Objectionable: The Cincinnati Committee for the

Evaluation of Comics and the Anti-Comics Movement,

1948-1956

Evan Ash, Miami University

"Aunt Tom": Phyllis Schlafly and the Case Against the ERA

Karl Kuehner, University of Illinois at Chicago

Frank Sinatra Has More Than a Cold: Federal

Investigation in Hollywood, 1955

Weldon Clark Terrill, Loyola University Chicago

Comment: Dr. Michelle Nickerson, Loyola University Chicago

Moderator: Jill Walker, Loyola University Chicago

Session 2 | 11:30-1:00

Negotiating Identity and Value: The Many Faces of the Pre-Modern Mediterranean World

Mundelein 414

Papers: Heraldic Markers of Fibula of Poggio Civitate:

The Archaic Period to the Orientalizing Period

Caroline Horvitz, Simmons University

The Identity of Ai Khanoum

Keegan Sims, Loyola University Chicago

Comment: Dr. Edin Hajdarpasic, Loyola University Chicago

Moderator: Austin Sundstrom, Loyola University Chicago

Urban Community Activism in America, 1950s to the Present Mundelein 415

Papers: Parks and Occupation: Public Spaces as Sites of

Municipal Authority and Objects of Community Politics in Contemporary Chicago, 1968-1989 Lucas Bensley, Loyola University Chicago

Class Politics, Multiracialism, and Cultural Production in the Los Angeles Committee for Protection of the

Foreign Born

Miguel Castaneda, University of California, San Diego

Philly PAL vs. the Black Panther Party: Molding Black

Youths into Our Own Image

Menika Dirkson, Temple University

"Sacerdotes Comprometidos": Diocesan Priest Involvement in Radical Politics during the 1970s

in Torreon, Coahuila

Jorge Puma, University of Notre Dame

Comment: Dr. Elizabeth Shermer, Loyola University Chicago

Moderator: Anna Claspy, Loyola University Chicago

Lunch | 1:00-3:00

Lunch Panel

Coffey Hall, McCormick Lounge

Welcome: Emily Davis, Loyola University Chicago

President, History Graduate Student Association

Panel: The lunch panel will explore the growing movement in history to better prepare history graduate students for a broad variety of careers both within and outside of academia. Panelists will consider the history of this effort-sometimes referred to as "career diversity" or "career pathways"-and why it's important to "build bridges" between historians and careers outside of the historical discipline. They will also discuss what this means for the future of the profession, what training for diverse career pathways looks like in the humanities more broadly, and how students can navigate these conversations in their own graduate programs. The lunch panel is sponsored in part by the American Historical Association's Career Diversity for Historians Initiative.

Panelists: Derek Attig, PhD

Director of Career Development, University of Illinois

Angela Schlater, PhD

Program Officer, MacArthur Foundation

Emily Swafford, PhD

Director of Academic and Professional Affairs,

American Historical Association

Frank Valadez

Director, Division of Public Education,

American Bar Association

Moderators: Hope Shannon, Loyola University Chicago

Tim Herbert, University of Illinois at Chicago

Session 3 | 3:15-4:45

Public History Roundtable: How Can Historians Build Bridges with the Public?

Mundelein, Palm Court

Panel: In this roundtable, four Loyola alumnae will draw on their experiences working in museum and postsecondary settings to explore the challenges and successes of creating connections. From helping audiences build empathy for historic and contemporary voices to supporting students in achieving their educational goals, we will unpack the big-picture and practical realities of dismantling barriers and bridging gaps.

Presenters: Courtney Baxter

Education Manager, Peoria Playhouse

Children's Museum Pam Johnson Davis

Manager of Fellow Support and Persistence, One Goal

Sarah Doherty

Assistant Professor of History, North Park University

Kelley Szany

Director of Education, Illinois Holocaust Museum and

Education Center

Moderator: Kelly Schmidt, Loyola University Chicago

Session 3 | 3:15-4:45

Female Reformers of the Progressive Era

Mundelein 403

Papers: Mothering the Race: Racial Uplift and Motherhood in

Interwar Detroit

Morgan Carlton, University of Michigan

"I one of them, though still white" Nancy Cunard: Jazz Age Muse and Early Civil Rights Warrior Caela Castilo, Fashion Institute of Technology Anna Adams Gordon: More than a Footnote

Anna Adams Gordon: More than a Footnote Linley Erickson, Northeastern Illinois University

The "Foul Ballot": The Women's Christian Temperance

Union and Voting Restrictions

Ella Wagner, Loyola University Chicago

Comment: Dr. Robert Johnston, University of Illinois at Chicago

Moderator: Hannah Overstreet, Loyola University Chicago

Regulating Sex and Gender, Eighteenth Century to the Present Mundelein 414

Papers: Remembering Sexual Violence on Campus (1960-2000)

Desiree Abu-Odeh, Columbia University

The Progressive Era Origins of Conversion Therapy

Seth Anderson, Boston University

Remembering the Ladies: Male Respectability in 18th Century Anglo-American Women's Letters Conor William Howard, University of Cincinnati

Comment: Dr. Elizabeth Hemenway, Loyola University Chicago

Moderator: Clark Terrill, Loyola University Chicago

Political Expression in the 18th and 19th Century Atlantic World Mundelein 415

Papers: Locke the Secretary, Private Property, and

Chattel Slavery

Noah Beissel, Loyola University Chicago

Session 3 | 3:15-4:45

Political Expression in the 18th and 19th Century Atlantic World Continued

Papers: 1830s American Newspaper Culture and the Imagined

Partisan Community

Matthew Labbe, Loyola University Chicago

"When Sufferance Bears No More": Veterans, Antiquity, and the Fate of the American Republic Kristofer Stinson, George Mason University

A Bull of a Governor, A China Shop of a Colony: Dunmore, Deference, and the Question of Authority in Virginia

Davis Stubblefield, Loyola University Chicago

Got your toque!: The Pâtissier and the Political

Caricature of the July Monarchy

Jill Walker, Loyola University Chicago

Comment: Dr. John Abbott, University of Illinois at Chicago

Moderator: Anthony Stamilio, Loyola University Chicago

Reception

Building Bridges Networking Reception

Coffey Hall, McCormick Lounge

Reception: The conference committee invites attendees to a special end-of-day reception. Enjoy complimentary refreshments while talking with fellow graduate students, faculty, and an assortment of humanities professionals working in a wide variety of careers both within and outside of academia. Meet new people and learn about some of the many ways historians have applied their degrees after graduation. The reception is sponsored in part by the American Historical Association's Career Diversity for Historians Initiative.

Thank you for attending the Fifteenth Annual Loyola University Chicago History Graduate Student Conference! We hope to see you again next year!

Please join us for the after party at Bulldog Ale House immediately following the reception.