PASS/NO-PASS, RULES

1. Students may change from Pass/No-Pass to the regular grading system, or vice versa, only during the first two weeks of the regular semester and during the first week of a summer session.
2. The student must be a junior or senior, in good standing, and must have satisfied the course prerequisites (or have the written permission from the course instructor).
3. A maximum of twelve passed credit hours may be awarded under Pass/No Pass and will be included in the total number of hours earned toward graduation, but will not enter into the computation of cumulative grade point averages. A student may not take more than two Pass/No Pass courses in any one academic session.
4. No course used toward fulfillment of core or major requirements may be taken as on a Pass/No Pass basis. Professional courses in education required for certification cannot be taken Pass/No Pass.
5. Under the Pass/No Pass option, the grades of A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, C- will be assigned a "P," for "Pass" and the grades D+, D, F will be assigned "NP," for "No-Pass."
6. "P" and "NP" grades will appear on the official record of the student's work taken at Loyola University, and may not be converted to any other grade symbol. Courses given grade of "P" will count toward graduation; the mark of "NP" will not count toward graduation.

Approval. Please make certain that all requested information has been supplied above.
