

SUNDAY, MAY 19, 2013

3:00PM

MADONNA DELLA STRADA CHAPEL

PAUL NICHOLSON, ORGAN

---

Wondrous Love (variations on a Shape-note Hymn)

Samuel Barber (1910-1981)

love we name

Paul Nicholson (b.1963)

- I. minuet
- II. siciliano
- III. fugue

Rubrics

Dan Locklair (b.1949)

- IV. The Peace May Be Exchanged

Three Gospel Preludes

William Bolcom (b.1938)

- I. What a Friend We Have in Jesus!
- II. La Cathédrale engloutie (Rock of Ages)
- III. Just As I Am

Fanfare for Organ

Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

---

Named Director of Music at Saint Clement Church in 2010, Paul Nicholson is a distinguished Chicago accompanist, vocal coach, composer, conductor and singer. He has served both faculty and staff at Roosevelt University, Lake Forest College, Concordia University, Columbia College, and the School of Music at DePaul University.

He has sung with the Chicago Symphony and Grant Park Music Festival choruses. His vocal and instrumental compositions have been recorded on the Cedille, Imaginary Road and Polygram labels, and he has appeared both at the keyboard and as a singer on Live from Studio One on WFMT.

Currently he serves as accompanist to the Grant Park Music Festival chorus.

Paul serves Saint Clement as principal organist and director of three choral ensembles: Schola Clementis, Seraphim, and Cantate Choir.