

The Public Character of Theology: Prospects for the 21st Century

Loyola University Chicago is proud to announce a two day conference, April 8th and 9th, honoring the work of Professor David Tracy, Andrew Thomas Greeley and Grace McNichols Greeley Distinguished Service Professor Emeritus of Catholic Studies at the University of Chicago Divinity School.

The conference will begin on the evening of Friday, April 8th, with the conferral of the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, Honoris Causa, on Professor David Tracy followed by Professor Tracy's public talk, "The Necessity and Character of Fundamental Theology." On Saturday, April 9th, a daylong conference with an international group of scholars will address a theme central to the work of Professor Tracy: the public character of theology. At the end of the day, Professor Tracy and the panel of scholars will engage in a dialogue and in a question and answer session.
