

In the frame of Theo 420/523, the Cody Chair invites all graduate students of NTEC, BS, and BLL to an Advanced Graduate Seminar

What is Jainism? Is it Gnosticism?

Exploring their Similarities and Differences with Yarina Liston

Monday, March 16, 2015
Cudahy Science Hall 207
11:30 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Yarina Liston, Ph.D. is a full time lecturer at Loyola University, Chicago. She holds a BS degree from the University of Southern California in Business Administration and a Masters Degree from New York University in Religious Studies. She earned her Ph.D. from Temple University in Philadelphia. She specializes in Buddha's biography in Sanskrit texts as well as gender in ancient Indian material.

For more information, contact: Prof. Edmondo Lupieri at elupieri@luc.edu /773-508-2363