QUINLAN SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

A lifetime of integrity

Loyola's Quinlan School of Business, Graduate School of Business, and our Accounting and Business Law Programs are all accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) International, the premier accrediting body for schools of business. Less than five percent of business schools worldwide have earned this distinction. Values are an integral part of the Loyola Experience, which is inspired by the Jesuit tradition of educating the whole person. As a part of that tradition, courses emphasize responsible leadership, diverse perspectives, and experiential learning. Quinlan also offers an Honors Program for highly motivated students to deepen their mastery of business.

EXPERIENCES

An engaging curriculum

Each area of the business curriculum is designed to help you develop the qualities that contribute to a successful career, intellectual growth, and personal satisfaction. Courses teach you how companies and other enterprises function, and also focus on ethics and values.

OPPORTUNITIES

Your career starts here

Our location enhances the strength of Quinlan's academic programs. We encourage you to embrace our extended urban classroom and all it has to offer. In Chicago, you'll have access to internship and job opportunities, as well as a wealth of diverse learning experiences.
